

ALPS PRICE MEADOWS<sup>SM</sup> EXPANDS EAST COAST OPERATIONS

Denver, CO, January 11, 2009 – ALPS Price Meadows<sup>SM</sup> (APM), a leading provider of administration services to the alternative asset management industry, today announced the next step in their planned expansion with a fully operational Boston office providing a complete suite of administration services. The expanded East Coast office will be headed by Jason Cholewa, Manager of Boston Operations, a veteran of APM.

“ALPS Price Meadows’ expansion to the East Coast is a significant milestone as we continue our plans for global expansion. Our clients have been encouraging us to have a local presence out East and we believe they will benefit as we continue to build our capabilities throughout the U.S. and abroad. This expansion will help ALPS Price Meadows continue to provide outstanding client service to each and every one of our clients,” said Ned Burke, CEO.

“This expansion provides our East Coast clients the ability to be serviced in the same time zone and to have local representatives servicing their funds. The expansion shows our commitment to serving our clients and continuing to improve our service capabilities in all areas”, said Paul Garvey, Vice President and Director of Hedge Fund Administration.

Institutional Investor’s 2008 Alpha Awards<sup>TM</sup> named APM as the #2 Fund Administrator in the “Small Firms’ Favorites” category – second only to Goldman Sachs & Co. Small firms are considered those with less than $1 billion in assets and comprise the vast majority of hedge funds. APM has earned the coveted Alpha Award<sup>TM</sup> for three straight years.
